I Will Go

Verse 1:

F#m   D   A   E
You come to me, when I am weak, when I am lonely
        F#m   D   A   E
 (You) waken my heart, though I am slow, to hear and obey
F#m   D   A   E
I hear Your call, to go to the weak, to go to the lonely
F#m   D   A   E
My selfish heart, just wants You to stay, to have You draw near

Chorus:

       D   E   E F#m
For there is none so lovely
   D   E   F#m
There is none so fair
   D   E   E F#m
I can't escape Your beauty
D   Esus E
   Ten thousand can't compare

Verse 2:

F#m   D   A   E
When I reach out, You've gone to the poor, healing the broken
F#m   D   A   E
Though I may call, the heavens are brass, Your purpose is clear
F#m   D   A   E
Lord I must go, to follow Your heart, to die for the nations
F#m   D   A   E
Yes I must go, (Your) stirring my heart, is this drawing me

Chorus 2:
```
        D      E      E    F#m
Yes there is none so lovely
  D      E        F#m
There is none so fair
  D      E          E    F#m
I can't escape Your beauty
D                          Esus  E
   Ten thousand can't compare
```

Bridge:
```
D/F#                          A
   (and) I will go where You go
D/F#                         A
   I will follow where You lead
D/F#                      A
   As You love the Father so
D/F#   /D  D/B            E
   Not my will Lord, send me
```

(Chorus)
